Softball Results

South Pacific Stars put on the pressure yesterday and slammed out a 5-1 victory over Communications. The Stars played heads-up ball all the way, with Robinson furnishing the power at the plate, knocking out two clean singles, one with the bases loaded. Groom, Tharpe, Butts, Lott and Thompson took care of the fielding in great style. "Rip" Gordon pitched another one of his fine games, allowing Communications only two hits.

"Shorty" McCumber was the stand-out for Ens. Craighead's boys, poling out a long home run, besides playing a neat game around the hot-corner.

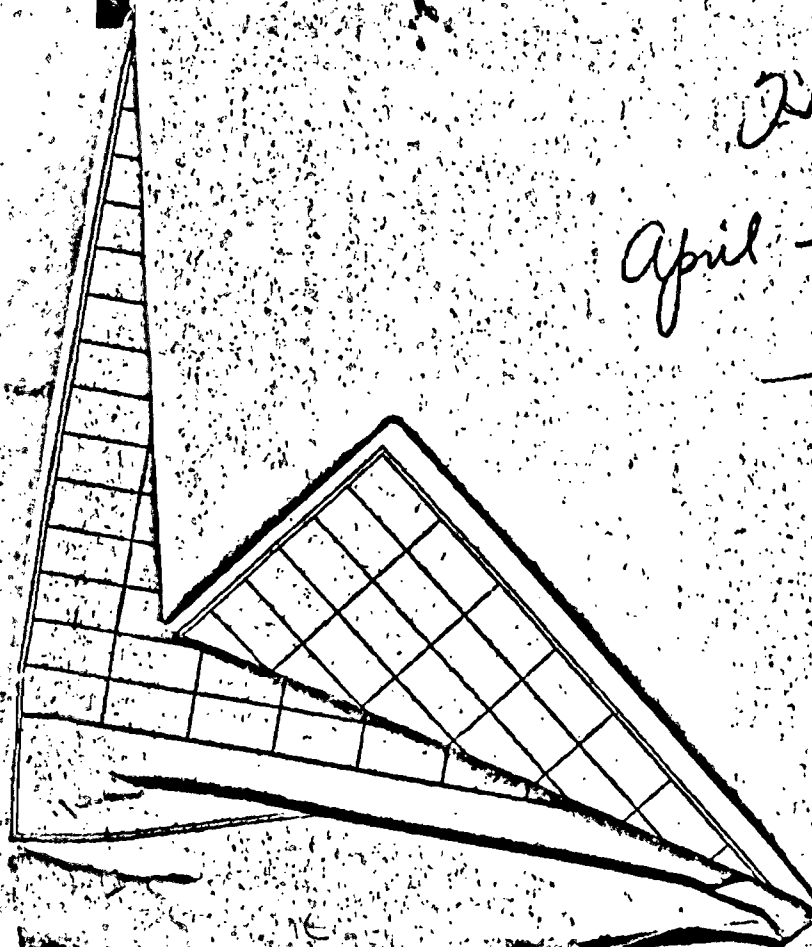

Supply gained its first victory of the second round by downing the Navy 717 Chiefs 4-2. Thompson was the winning hurler, getting good

Army Cagers Win Again

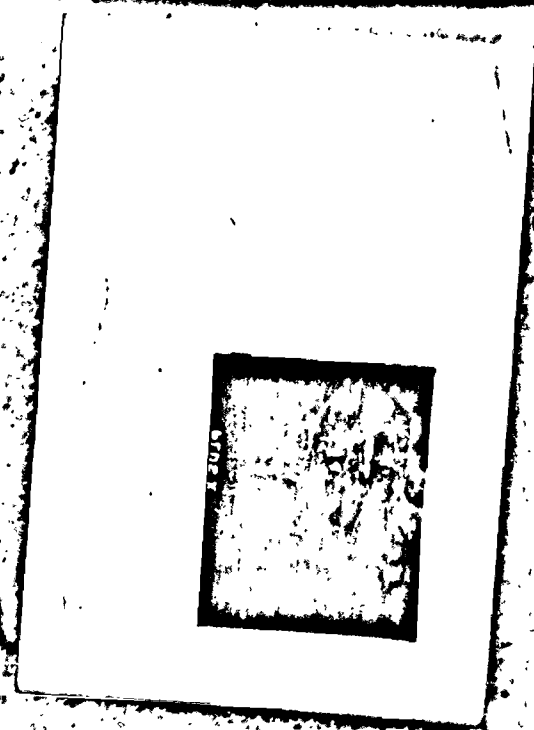

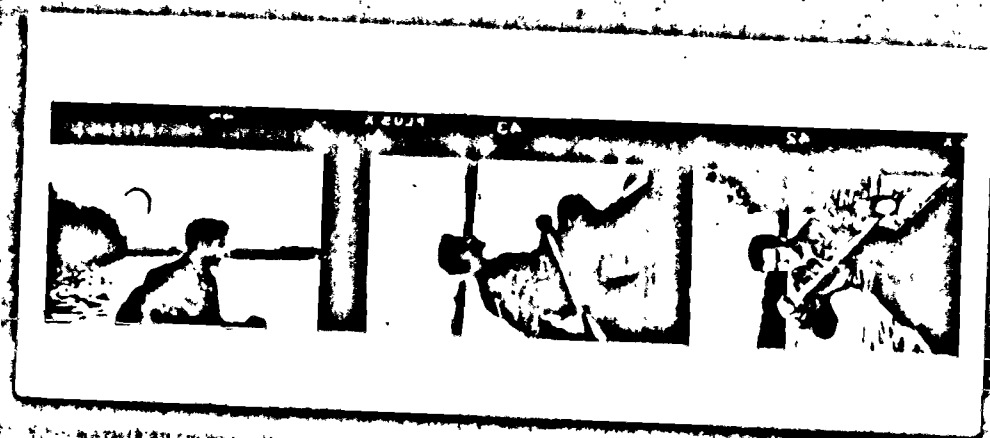

The Army, led by Dale Hall, the kid from Kansas, ran up its twenty-eighth consecutive triumph Saturday (Stateside time), winning from Princeton 67-34. The 20-game streak has been spread over three seasons. Dale Hall, Parsons, Kansas Cadet football and basketball star, poured in 22 points to top the scorers.

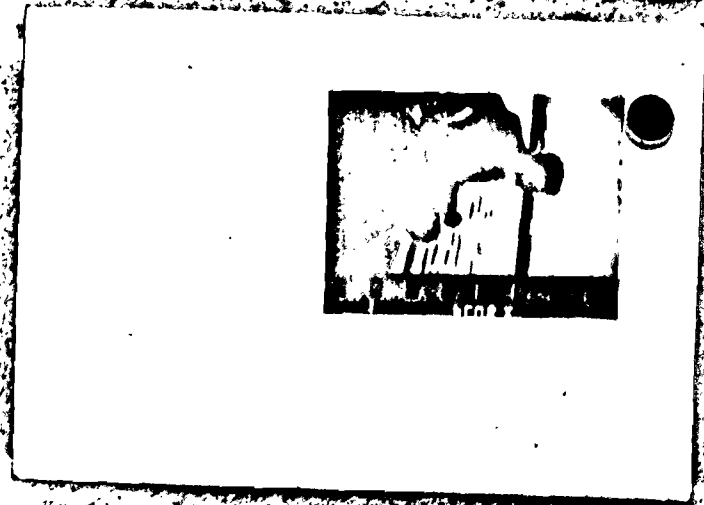

WASHINGTON: The War Department has decided that no wartime professional athlete will be rejected for military service until his case has been reviewed by military officials in Washington. In the future, all information will be forwarded to the War Department, which will accept or reject the athlete. This action was generally regarded as the knockout punch for professional football and
